

Arab and Jewish Immigrants in Latin America: Images and Realities

Recent research suggests a more complicated scenario behind Honduras's abstention on the 1947 partition issue. Ignacio Klich suggests other possible interpretations of Honduras' abstention. For example, Klich discusses abstention as a silent retaliation for US government lack of cooperation on Honduran demands in exchange for a favourable vote.⁷⁵ Also relevant, suggests Klich, is the issue of anti-communism on the part of then Honduran dictator, General Tiburcio Carías Andino. Carías, influenced by a similar position assumed by Spain's Francisco Franco, apparently considered Guatemala's pro-Zionist delegate to the United Nations Special Committee on Palestine (UNSCOP), Jorge García Granados, to be a Soviet agent. In this scenario, abstention emerges as an Honduran anti-communist position linked to Spanish influence.⁷⁶
